

From the Pastor

Graduation is the culmination of years of hard work. It is the completion of requirements that deem a person worthy of receiving recognition for their efforts. I want to congratulate those who have graduated from high school and college this semester. This year's graduates are: Abram Martinez, Michelle Aguilar, Andrea Torres, Ben Cervantes, Abraham Carreto, and Kelly Blystone. May the Lord bless you all in your future, wherever that future may take you.

On Sunday, May 17th, I preached a message about a series of spiritual graduations that the apostle Paul experienced. The fact is that many of us are like him. We have graduated from being a lost sinner, to being saved by God's grace, to being a servant of the living God. The final graduation is heaven. Paul described that final "diploma" this way in 2 Timothy 4:8—In the future there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day; and not only to me, but to all who have loved His appearing.

As we continue to face uncertain days on this earth, be reminded that this world is our mission field, not our home! Wherever the Lord takes you, do what you do for the Lord.

Join us Sunday mornings for Online Church! At 9:30am videos will be available for you to watch, including songs from David and a message from Pastor Six. For a Live Viewing experience, join us on Facebook at 9:30am sharp where you can comment and react with others as the video airs. You won't be able to pause, rewind, or fast forward the video until it has ended and posted permanently to the Facebook page. Here is the link for Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/ScotsdaleBaptist/>

There is also now a Sunday Services tab on our website that people can use to find the youtube videos and any sermon notes that P6 sends out. Here's the link to that: <http://sbcep.org/sunday-services/> You can mark your attendance with this link: <http://bit.ly/sbcep-attend> For online giving use this link: <http://bit.ly/ScotsdaleGive> If you don't have Facebook or would prefer to control the video (pause, rewind, etc) then join us on YouTube where new Sunday Service videos become available every Sunday at 9:30am. Here is the link for YouTube: <https://bit.ly/sbcytss>

We highly recommend that you visit the above links before Sunday morning so you can be familiar with how it all works. If you have any technological issues or difficulties please send us an email at scotsdalebaptistchurch@gmail.com. We have been blessed with the ability to bring church to you in this format and appreciate your patience and grace as we navigate this new territory.

For Sunday school classes, several teachers are finding ways to meet online. Please contact your teacher if you haven't heard any plans for Sunday school classes yet. If you would like to study the lessons on your own, please see previous church emails for that information.

Message from your Deacon Body:

Pastoral Needs:

As needs arise for members of the church, we want to do what we can as a church to support one another. If you are experiencing loneliness or have or know of a pastoral care need, please call the church office at 915-595-2811. Please note that our limited resources will primarily serve members of Scotsdale Baptist Church. Also, we will support any and all prayer requests.

Widows/Widowers:

Widows and widowers should contact their assigned Deacon for any help needed. If you don't know who your Deacon is, please call Frank Robbins, the Deacon Chair, day or night at 915-478-8991 for assistance. The Deacon Ministry is here to support the church body. Please let us know how we can help you.

Congratulations!
